

7. international exar-conference, Unteruhldingen (G) 8th-11th October 2009

In cooperation with the Lake Dwelling Museum (Pfahlbaumuseum), Unteruhldingen (G)

Central topic of the conference was "Review of 20 years experimental archaeology".

Evening program at Thursday, 8th October 2009:

First meeting for interested one, hotel Mainaublick, Unteruhldingen

Conference program at Friday, 9th October 2009:

Welcome

Dr. Gunter Schöbel - exar-Vorstandsvorsitzender

Quo vadis experimental archaeology?

Dr. Ulrike Weller

Forchtenberg – An archaeobotanic long term experiment

Prof. Dr. Manfred Rösch

Ouch! Reflections on prehistoric tattoos

Holger Junker M.A.

The Hornstaad-house – An archaeological long term experiment 1996-?

Dr. Gunter Schöbel

Experiments on simulations of arrow shots

Thomas Lessig-Weller M.A.

Music archaeology – sounds and music throughout the time

Susanne Rühling M.A.

Guided tour through the Lake Dwelling Museum and start of the burning of pottery.
Round trip on the Überlinger Sea with a ship.

Conference program at Saturday, 10th October 2009:

Chopped up, hidden and broken

Some thoughts about the production and processing of plane convex ingots and related forms of raw material in the Late Bronze Age in Styria

Daniel Modl

Experimental oval drilling of neolithic stone axes

(in collaboration with Friedrich-Wilhelm Könecke)

Dr. Jean-Loup Ringot

Drilling in the museum: history of research, didactics, mathetics

Peter Walter M.A.

An iron age bridge construction in La Tène

Daniel Pillonel

20 years experiments in bronze technology

A critical review

lic. phil. Walter Fasnacht

Experiments in Viking Age glass bead making in southern Scandinavia

A call for continuation

Mag. Art. Tine Gam-Aschenbrenner

Experimental Archaeology and Living History – the view of a re-enactor and archaeologists

Andreas Willmy M.A.

”Living History” as a contribution to the mediation in museums – possibilities, limits and risks

Dr. Ullrich Brand-Schwarz

20 years experimental archaeology – a critical statement

Dr. Dirk Vorlauf

The Nibelungensaga in science and practice

20 years of experimental history, living history or just a fuss?

Prof. Dr. Ulrich Mehler

General meeting EXAR

Excursion at Sunday, 11. October 2009

„Stone Age apple feast“ in the Lake Dwelling Museum (Pfahlbaumuseum), Unteruhldingen.

Guided tour by Dr. Helmut Schlichtherle through the department “wetland archaeology” of the archaeological service Baden-Württemberg.